his title, and he needs to display his own his address, and a great flourish in what is long and tedious composition. Now what is that of thing but a regular piece of authorship?

Phacdr. True.

Soc. And if the law is passed, then, like the poet, he leaves the theatre in high delight; but if the law is rejected, and he is done out of his speech-making, and not his right good enough to write, then he and his party are in mourning.

Phacdr. Very true.

Soc. This shows how far they are from despising, or rather how highly they value the practice of writing.

Phacdr. No doubt.

Soc. And when the king or orator has the power, as Lycurgus or Solon or Darius had, of attaining an immortality of authorship in a state, is he not thought by posterity, when they see his writings, and does he not think himself, while he is yet alive, to be like a god?

Phacdr. That is true.

Soc. Then do you think that any one of this class who may be ill-disposed to Lysias would ever make it a reproach against him that he is an author?

Phacdr. Not upon your view; for according to you he would be reproaching him with his own favorite pursuit.

Curriculum

President; Academic Dean

Dr. Jacob Fisher, new president of Sacred Heart College, came to the institution from Loyola College, where he was Vice-President in charge of Planning. Installed in an impressive ceremony on November 2, Dr. Fisher has made many energetic plans for the future of SHC. His primary concern being an increase in enrollment, he has also given full backing to the proposed Student Lounge.

Assisting Dr. Fisher in academic matters is Sr. Pauline Mary, Acting Academic Dean. In addition to her regular duties as registrar, Sr. Pauline is also charged with the academic purposes and standards of the institution.

- A. Dr. Jacob Fisher at installation.
- B. Dr. Fisher chats with Susan Carroll.
- C. Acting Academic Dean Sr. Pauline.

Dept. Directors

The Administrative staff functions solely to keep the college running smoothly. Chief Business Officer Sr. Mary Regina has under her jurisdiction all financial matters. As Registrar, Sr. Pauline Mary deals with all persons who take courses at Sacred Heart.

Serving as both Admissions and Financial Aid Officer, Miss Elizabeth Boulus is the person responsible for admitting qualified students, and insuring their financial ability to attend. Assistant Librarian Mrs. Merriweather Maynard helps Sr. Mary Annette with her duties as Library Director.

- A. Director of Admissions and Student Aid Miss E. Boulus.
- B. Business Manager Sr. Mary Regina
- C. Librarian Sr. Mary Annette
- D. Assistant Librarian M. Maynard
- E. Registrar Sr. Pauline Mary

Dept. Directors

Ministering to the spiritual needs of the Catholic students of Sacred Heart, Abbot Walter made himself a great favorite of all the girls. Sr. Jeanne Marie worked to effect needed changes in student life with the aid of her assistant, Miss Angela Wheeler. Also working to change the college was Col. William Poveromo, director of development, and public relations. Sr. Mary Bernard ruled over the realm of student accounts with her well-known Irish brogue.

- A. Col. William Poveromo, Director of Development and Public Relations, discusses SHC progress with his secretary.
- B. SHC Chaplin, Abbot Walter Coggin with students.
- C. Dean of Student Affairs Sr. Jeanne Marie chats with a visiting priest.
- D. Sr. Mary Berrard, Student Accounts.
- E. Miss Angela Wheeler, Assistant Dean of Student Affairs.

Fine Arts

Although referred to as a "well-kept secret," the art department at Sacred Heart was well-known throughout the state for its fine comprehensive program. Sr. Mary Theophane guided all art majors, and Mrs. Mary Mintich specialized in studio problems. New to SHC, Mr. Youngman taught a special course on African Art.

Also in the area of fine arts, Sr. Mary Cecilia continued with her round of special music classes and lessons. Joining her in musical pursuit was Mrs. Georgia Arribau, who helped build an enthusiastic chorus.

- A. Mr. Youngman helps D. Greene.
- B. Sr. Theophane ponders a student's latest work.
- C. Sr. Cecilia instructs a well-prepared student.
- D. Mrs. Mary Mintich.
- E. Mrs. Arribau leads the chorus in a difficult passage.

Psychology Dept.

Under the smiling guidance of Dr. Joseph Lewandowski, the Psychology Department of SHC was enlarged and strengthened. Sr. Jeanne Margaret McNally taught the introductory course, and also handled theology classes. A third staff member, Ronnie Grant, came second semester to bolster psych offerings.

- A. Sr. Jeanne Margaret McNally, Psychology Teacher.
- B. An elfin grin lights Dr. Joseph Lewandowski's face.
- C. Ronald Grant on his way to class.

Education Dept.

The Education Department of SHC found itself in the midst of revising its courses and programs. Caught up in the controversy over teacher certification, Sister Christine and her faculty had to re-evaluate many aspects of their teacher training. Mrs. Donna Simmons also worked long hours to upgrade the department.

Many part-time educators supplemented the faculty, especially in the sciences. Sr. Jean-Baptiste taught Physical Science, and Biology was capably handled by Sr. Mary Matthew. Rounding out the scientific facet of the college was Sr. Gertrude, Health teacher.

- A. Sr. Christine prepares a lecture for one of her classes.
- B. Mrs. Donna Simmons gives a registration form to an education major.
- C. Sr. Jean-Baptiste checks a student's work.
- D. Observing a biology slide made by a student is Sr. Mary Matthew.
- E. Sr. Gertrude speaks to her health class.

- A. Miss Elaine Sipe checks a student's unit plan.
- B. Sr. Mary Hugh enjoys the Christmas Banquet.
- C. Mrs. Joy Sparrow demonstrates the jumping-jack.
- D. Discussing teacher methodology are Miss Charlotte Owsowski, Miss Angie Wheeler, Miss Elizabeth Boulus.

Education Dept.

The Education Department encompassed many courses which did not seem to fit in that area. Sr. Mary Hugh taught mathematics for elementary teachers, and Mrs. Joy Sparrow also prepared students to teach P.E.

More orthodox courses were taught by Miss Elaine Sipe, who also observed student teachers. Miss Elizabeth Boulus also was responsible for a math course, plus education classes. Miss Charlotte Owsowski generated much pupil interest in her courses on Special Education.

Integrated Studies

The Integrated Studies Department provides a varied correlation of subjects in the area of general knowledge. Dedicated to this purpose, Dr. Louis Brown is responsible for literature courses. Aiding her in the English department is Mr. John Cowie, who also teaches theology. Dr. Anthony Camele, Director of General Studies, fits well in the role of campus philosopher. Aiding girls in the library are Sr. Hildegard and Sr. Perpetua.

- A. Reference Librarian Sr. Hildegard
- B. Circulation Librarian Sr. Perpetua
- C. Discussing grades with students is Sr. Jeanne Marie.
- D. Mr. John Cowie
- E. Dr. Anthony Camele
- F. Dr. Louise Brown, Chairman

- A. Mr. Richard Davis intellectually and culturally discusses American History with Diane Greene.
- B. Caught by the camera is Mr. George McGarry.
- C. Dr. Carl Zell on the way to class.
- D. Miss Gardan Freeman listens to a student's report.

American Studies

An ever-growing department at SHC was American Studies. Miss Gordon Freeman returned to her niche in the department following a semester's absence. Taking over as history buff in residence, Mr. Richard Davis delighted underclassmen with his dry wit and surprising habits. Surprises were not in store, however, for those in Dr. Carl Zell's classes, where methodical presentations reigned supreme.

The Social Welfare program obtained a new director in the person of Mr. George McGarry, who came to Sacred Heart with fifteen years' experience.

SGA; Senate House Council

Faced with the almost insurmountable problems of governing the student body and upholding the standards of the college, the Student Government Association was nevertheless able to achieve their objective of effective government.

A major project of the Senate was the Student's Lounge, to be completed in the old Holy Angels' building. With the wholehearted support of Dr. Fisher, the Senate worked enthusiastically on this much-needed facility.

House Council, besides sponsoring dorm parties, also was able to greatly improve the system of late hours.

- A. Student Senate: M. McBride; K. McCaughn, E. Drayton; L. Grant; J. Aube; B. Thomas; K. Pierse; R. Hudson; B. Sanfillipo; Dr. Lewandowski; R. Sliger.
- B. House Council: Pres. L. Grant; Treas. M. Johnson; Soc. Chm. P. Crowley; Corr. Sec. A. Micale; Sec. M. Werner.
- C. Student Govm't: Sec. J. Aube; V. Pres. R. Sliger; Adv. Dr. Lewandowski; Pres. B. Sanfillipo; Treas. K. McCaughn.

Hall Counselors; Reps; Judi Boards

The hall counselors took the place of the nurse on her off-hours and counseled resident students. They speeded dorm operation by sorting mail, locking doors, and caring for sick girls.

Hall representatives were elected members of House Council. Their duties were to keep communication open between the Executive Board and the students, and to keep dorm life running smoothly.

Laboring to effect sweeping revisions of the student judicial boards, the SGA attempted to set up one board for all offenses. The simplified process, although not now used, will facilitate the judicial system.

- A. Judicial Boards: T. Shaughnessy; D. Chariker; L. Mosel; M. Wright; M. O'Brian; C. Giovenco; R. Sliger; L. Dean; C. Parish; K. McGrail; C. Colligan.
- B. Hall Representatives: B. Thomas; P. Hodapp; L. Williams; C. Giovenco.
- C. Hall Counselors: G. Peters, M. Wright; M. Branigan; B. Truesdale; K. Bernier; D. Jackson; G. Skelton.

Afro-American; International Relations Club

The Afro-American Union had a joint association with Belmont Abbey College. Its main functions were to probe the workings of the Black conscience and to promote an understanding of the role of the black in today's society.

Established for foreign students, the International Relations Club fostered understanding among students from various cultures. They attended a coffee-house sponsored for other such groups, and exchanged gifts at a Christmas party.

- A. Afro Americans: D. Mercer, J. Strong, M. Kelly, T. Thomas.
- B. Christmas Party for IRC: Dr. Zell, C. Dondero, L. Edwards, M. Finnegan, M. Riley, T. Loflin.
- C. IRC members M. Finnegan, M. Riley, M. Kelly, T. Loflin examine their gifts.
- D. IRC: C. Dondero; A. Arant; M. Kelly; M. Finnegan, Pres.; T. Loflin; K. Bernier; B. Thomas; L. Edwards.

- C. Advisor for SNCAE, Miss E. Boulus.
- D. SNCAE: G. Skelton, P. Stuart, J. Telese, Miss Boulus, D. Regula, C. Dundero, M. Trombello, J. Aube, E. Luhman.

SNCAE; Psych Club

The Student North Carolina Association of Educators is a group of prospective teachers who meet to learn the history, purposes, and ethics of education as a profession. They sponsored a tutoring program for disadvantaged children, encouraging all Sacred Heart students to participate in the project.

The Psychology Club promotes interest and knowledge in the field of psychology for all Abbey and SHC students. With the money they raised from their annual wine booth at the bazaar the Psych Club was able to secure Dr. Steven Bondi to speak on the topic "The Problems of Responsibility." Other speakers were also to speak to the club.

WRA; Legion of Mary

The Women's Recreation Association sponsored intramurals in volleyball, basketball, and softball. Other events were the annual North-South game and student-faculty games.

The Legion of Mary is an assembly of Catholic women whose purpose is to promote Christian ideals and offer services where needed. Legion members taught CCD classes, and visited Holy Angels.

- A. WRA sponsors the North-South game.
- B. Legion of Mary Pres. G. Gray; Adv. Sr. Jean Baptiste; C. Dandero; M. Schroer.
- C. C. Dandero, G. Gray plan the program for a Legion of Mary meeting.
- D. WRA: D. Chariker; D. Duane; Pres. B. Truesdale; K. Bernier; T. Zodda; E. Mandelbaum; M. Wright; G. Peters; K. Pierse; M. Finnegan.

Campus Ministry; SCAR

The Students' Committee on Admissions and Recruiting was resurrected this year to help boost lagging enrollment. Their two-fold purpose was to assist the Admissions office in recruiting new students, and in guiding them during campus visits. Another function was to promote a spirit of unity and satisfaction among the present student body.

Campus Ministry was also reorganized this year. They chose and taught new songs and responses for the students' Mass, and helped to redecorate the students' Chapel on First East. Another aim of the ministry was to promote a more Christian atmosphere in the student body.

- A. SCAR: M. Wright, J. Murphy, M. Kelly, L. Williams, E. Mondelbaum, D. Greene, P. Hodapp, K. Pierse, B. Kearny, M. Golembieski, G. Peters, A. Moon, J. McKoy.
- B. Campus Ministry: G. Peters, B. Truesdale, L. Williams, M. Wright, T. Loflin.
- C. SCAR meeting: J. McKoy, M. Wright, P. Moran.
- D. Planning for Mass are T. Loflin, E. Weir, M. Wright, K. Bernier.

Golden Hearts; Sisters of Pi Kap

Working closely with Sigma Phi Epsilon, the Golden Hearts undertook the sale of printed t-shirts. Service projects and athletic events were sponsored.

Hampered by a lack of members, the Little Sisters of Pi Kap nevertheless participated in many activities with their brothers.

- A. Little Sisters of Pi Kap and Friends.
Girls: N. Naughton, M. Wright, M. B. Egan, Not Pic: D. Regula, M. Johnson, others.
- B. Golden Hearts at Keg party: M. Schraer, G. Gray, P. Boulus, K McGrail.
- C. Golden Hearts: P. Boulus; E. Flanagan; M. Schraer; G. Gray, V. Pres.; K. McGrail; M. J. Dvarscak; J. Verhaven, Sec.; D. Quinn; C. Colligan; D. Baudouin; G. Boulus; D. Jackson, Pres.; L. Edwards, Treas.

Order of Diana; Phi Kap Sisters

Newly-organized this year, the Little Sisters of Phi Kap made a permanent niche for themselves in the lives of the brothers. They added a feminine touch to the redecoration of the den at the Phi Kap house, and also entertained with a home-cooked dinner.

Continuing the annual spaghetti dinner with TKE, the Order of Diana also instituted a cook-out with the brothers. To lessen confusion, OD decided to elect officers each November, so that they could use the experience gained from past officers.

- A. C. Kirk, K Bouknight before a Phi Kap Party.
- B. Order of Diana: L. Deshenes, Historian; C. Clark, Pledge; L. Supak; C. Giovenco, Treas.; P. Crawley, Pres.; L. Mosel; E. Kent; K. McCaughn; T. Shaughnessy, Sec.; M. Stewart, Pledge Mistress; B. Newcomb; T. Poteet; J. Sordello; P. Strunk, Pledge; P. Maroney, V. Pres.; D. Malone, Pledge.
- C. Little Sisters of Phi Kap: K. Bouknight, Treas.; M. Brennan, Pres.; C. Parish; K. Berbakos; C. Kirk.
- D. L. Mosel, P. Maroney serve spaghetti at the yearly Tke-OD dinner.

Orientation; College Union

Bewildered freshmen were shown the ropes by an enthusiastic Orientation Committee, under the tutelage of Ercelle Drayton. The traditional mixer with Abbey freshmen was the usual chaotic event; a huge cattle show. But with the aid of knowledgeable upperclassmen, new students stepped quickly into the Sacred Heart Routine.

An integral part of the Sacred Heart Routine is the College Union. Students from both schools labor to provide unique, exciting entertainment for all. Centered at the Haid, Union activities included concerts by "Flash Cadillac," Danny Cox and "Mom's Apple Pie;" movies such as "Klute" and "Summer of '42"; plus a wine-tasting.

- A. Orientation Committee: M. Stupalski; R. Sliger; P. Levering; E. Drayton, Pres; D. DuBois; K. Bouknight; C. Parish; P. Gallela; T. Shaughnessy; L. Supak; C. Giovenco; M. Johnson; K. Pierse; P. Hodapp.

C. "Vent" staff at meeting: A. Arant, A. Flannagan, P. Moran, D. Mayer.

Ventriloquist; Gradatim

The loss of editor Marti McBride was felt keenly by the staff of the "Ventriloquist." Efficient organization was readily apparant under new editor Jody McKoy, however, and the fine quality of editorial selections was not sacrificed. Hottest news item was a rather unfavorable survey of Abbey men concerning Vent students.

Lack of experience was the name of the game as the Gradatim staff labored to meet pressing deadlines. Theme and layout problems were finally resolved, however as a skeleton crew hoped to present students with a yearbook to treasure.

Year

Installation of Dr. Jacob Fisher

With a handshake from the Chairman of the Board of Trustees and a kiss from the student body president, Dr. Jacob Fisher was formally installed November 2, 1972 as the first lay president of Sacred Heart College. Addressing an audience of dignitaries, educators and students, Dr. Fisher said that with God's help, SHC "will flourish in the bright new world of tomorrow." Ending his speech by cancelling classes the next day, he received a standing ovation from students and faculty.

- A. Students wave good-bye to General Ferd Davis, representative of the Governor of North Carolina.
- B. The Most Reverend Thomas Donnellan, Archbishop, the Archdiocese of Atlanta.
- C. Platform Party and the Right Reverend Edmund McCaffrey, Chancellor of Belmont Abbey College.

100 Days Party. Big-Little Sisters

The annual Big Sister-Little Sister Dinner was a special event this year, with a spaghetti supper, entertainment, and a champagne punch party in the Pine Room. Seniors were presented a gala dinner for the 100 days until graduation party where faculty and students recalled "good ole days."

- A. ?, B. Fratarcangelo, L. Deschenes, M. Trombello, M. Anderson.

- F. Third West Seniors at 100 days party.
- G. J. Telese, G. Skelton, G. Peters, E. Drayton, Sr. Pauline feel the affects of the 100 days party.

North/South Game

The South rose again on November 6, via the annual North-South basketball game. Led by Bridgette Truesdale, the South gained the upper hand and held it to win with a score of 25-14. Following the enthusiastically cheered event, both sides retired to the Pine Room for a party sponsored by the Sophomore Class.

- A. Northern jocks E. Frey, P. Levering.
- B. E. Frey, M. Johnson, P. Hodapp, J. Almon, D. Duane at Sophomore's Pine Room Party.
- C. "We lost?" gosps K. Pierse.
- D. D. Chariker tries a long shot for the South.
- E. C. Ashley, M. Ehrhard, B. Fratorcngelo at Pine Room Party.
- F. D. Chariker controls the jump ball.

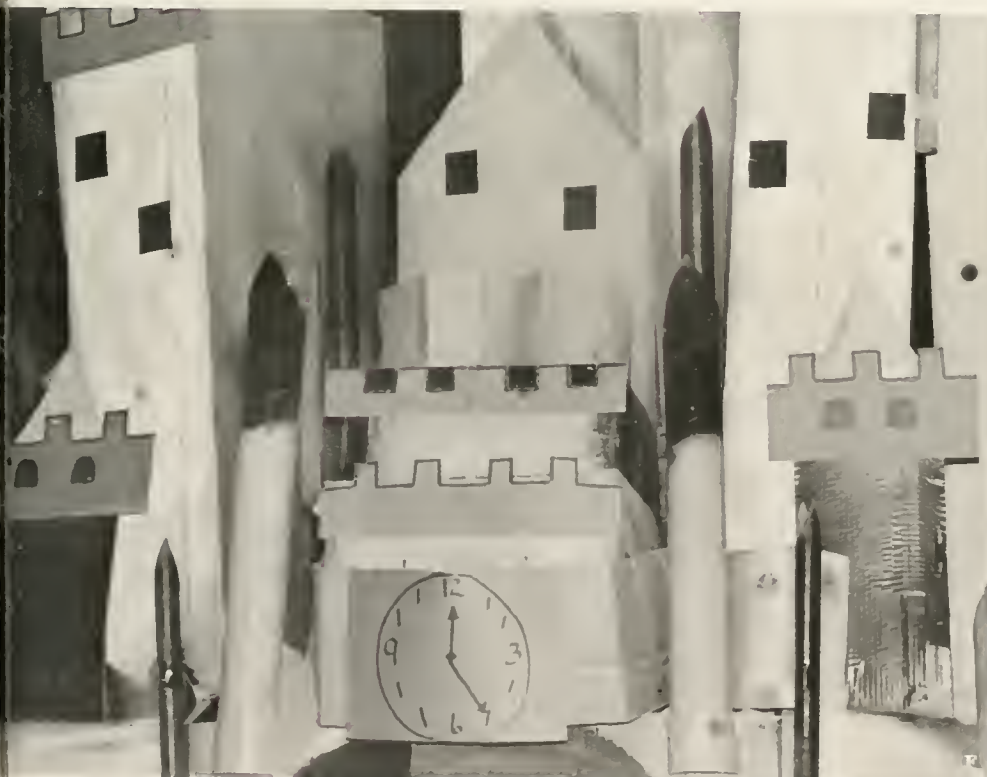

Christmas Party; Hall Decoration

Ingenius lighting, creative murals, and a Grandma's house made Doyle Hall look like a Christmas festival. Peanuts, the Bible story, and an old-timey Christmas were stiff competition, but finally bowed to Christmas in Disney World by Third West. A dinner for the entire college community was followed by skits from each class, complete with Santa by the Freshmen.

- A. Freshman Class Skit
- B. Saphamore Class Sang
- C. Junior Class Song
- D. Freshman Santa, E. Frey
- E. Tricia, S. Claus (Dr. Lewandowski)
- F. Third West's Disney World Castle

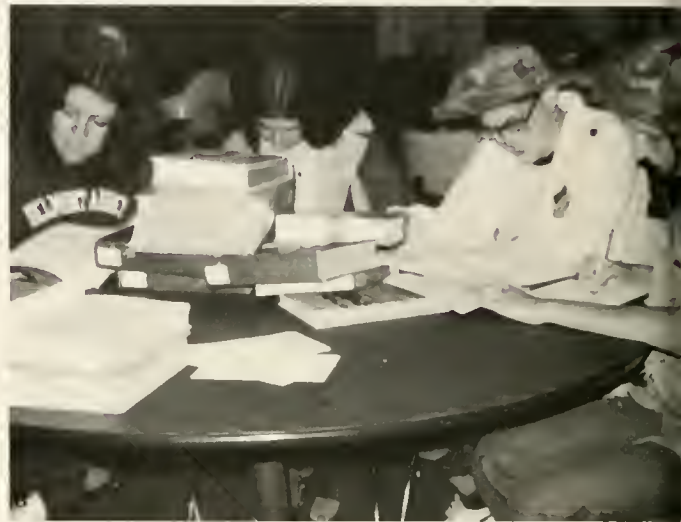

Studying at SHC

"Yes, Virginia, there is a library at Sacred Heart College." Students utilized the often-empty library to read assignments, study for tests, and compose term papers. They also studied in the classroom, the dining room, the dorm room, the out of doors. Not readily apparant, perhaps, students did study.

A

- A. D. Fatchek, C. Sabettie discuss an assignment.
- B. Studying for a test are P. Hodapp, D. Malone, E. Frey, M. Johnson.
- C. Pre-class silence.

Union Activities

Union activities range from old movies to new wines, from jazz to an organist. The wine-tasting sponsored by California wine-growers was well-received by students who chose favorites from the ten wines offered.

Halloween brought a costume contest with cleaning ladies, Janis Joplin, and an old man strong contenders. The most enthusiastic response was given the St. Louis Jazz Quartet, who performed songs from the days of Billie Holiday to the present.

- A. Students sample bouquet and flavor of different California wines.
- B. Singer from St. Louis Jazz Quartet and Officer Howard talk at intermission.
- C. A country couple at Halloween.

- E. Guitarist and drummer from the Jazz Quartet.
- F. The St. Louis Jazz Quartet performs.

Abbey Social Life

The main staple of social life at the Abbey were the Friday Night Things and fraternity parties. The F.N.T. remained a showcase for local talent, with "Eastern Seaboard" a regular feature.

The Fraternities kept up their tradition of beer, band and boys all for one low-low price. This same idea was used to some advantage during open dorms.

Homecoming

Raun MacKinnon began an exciting Homecoming with her unusual blend of popular and original tunes. Following her was the "Impact of Brass" whose mastery of music earned them their name. The close win over WCU was highlighted by the dance featuring "Early Morning Fog." Singing beautiful Irish ballads, Fox Watson delighted a spirited audience, as did "Summer of '42".

- A. Magician produces a lovely bouquet.
- B. Students spellbound by Fox Watson.
- C. Enjoying the uncola are T. Poteet, M. Altes.
- D. T. Shaughnessy, P. Keany discuss her "club foot."

“Funny Thing—Forum”

The Abbey Players presented their first musical, “A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum” from February 15-17. Based on the plays of Plautus, the comedy was directed by Dr. Winslow Hartford and produced by Chris Johnston. Although plagued by illness, the cast triumphed in a totally professional manner. Mad dashes across stage were punctuated by hysterical mix-ups, outrageous musical numbers and droll humor.

- A. Hero (T. Lamas), Senex (D. Holley), Hysterium (D. Alford), and Domine (D. Moyer) “approve” of Domina’s statue.
- B. Lycus (R. O’Connor) reacts to Pseudolus’ (C. Johnston) news of the plague on Crete.
- C. Senex (D. Holley) extols the virtues of a maid in the house.
- D. Pseudolus (C. Johnston) is spellbound by the courtesan Tintinabula (S. Mossari).
- E. Lycus (R. O’Connor) scolds his eunuch (C. Parish).

Memories of Class of 1973

It all began in August of 1969, with the arrival of about 150 scared but curious girls. A whole new life was about to unfold before us, and here we were totally unfamiliar with everyone and everything.

Through the years we grew; grew to know others with the help of the freshman picnic at the Red Fez Club and to know ourselves. The water fights, pantie raid and two o'clock am meetings with the dean were all part of our growth.

Even though our number decreased greatly our spirit remained. We managed to survive freshman humanities, initiation and bomb scares, only to end up in our respective fields preparing to leave our "home" in May. We may return often, or only once, but we will all return to SHC constantly in our thoughts.
